HISTORIC RESOURCE INVENTORY – BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES

CONTINUATION SHEET

Apple Rehab/10 Boston Post Rd

Interrelationship of building and surroundings:

Surrounding the property are late nineteenth century and twentieth century dwellings as well as commercial properties. It is two miles to the northeast of the Guilford Green, and a mile and a half north of Long Island Sound. It sits just to the west of the Madison town line.

Other notable features

A brick chimney protrudes from the center of the ridge atop the roof. This house is now part of a large nursing home complex, and numerous additions have been added to the east, west, and south elevations.

Historical or architectural importance

In 1846, Hotchkiss purchased property on the south side of Boston Post Road near East River Bridge from the heirs of Roswell Evarts. Here he set up Hotchkiss Shipyard and went to business with his son, T. Dwight Hotchkiss. Later on – they jointly owned two other businesses in town: a saw mill and the brick factory on High Street. In 1868 due to the railroad and the Civil War – the Hotchkiss Shipyard closed. Throughout it's time the shipyard built and launched 32 vessels including sloops, schooners, barks, and ships.

Other owners of the property include Roswell Evarts (original owner), Julius/Curtis Evarts (1827), Walter Osborn, Dwight Humiston, T. Dwight Hotchkiss (1858), William H. Cadwell (1868), Orison M. Blunt (1876), Philo M. Blatchley (1879), Mary Emma Knowles (1889).
