HISTORIC RESOURCE INVENTORY – BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES

CONTINUATION SHEET

110 Boston Street

Interrelationship of building and surroundings

Trees line the east and north borders of the property and a walkway lines the south. The property is less than a mile to the east of the Guilford Green, and less than a mile to the north of the Guilford Fair Grounds. Less than a mile to the east is the Griswold House located at 171 Boston Street, and a few houses to the west of this property is the Griswold House located at 84 Boston Street.

Other notable features of building or site

Above the door is a roof held up by iron brackets, and stone steps lead to the entry. Two one-over-one double-hung sash windows are to the east of the door. Above the entry, in the second story, are three two-over-two double-hung sash windows. A two-over-two double-hung sash window is in the gable-peak. The house has a small extension on the east side and two additions, one in the rear (north side elevation), and the other on the west side elevation.

Historical or Architectural importance

George W. Seward was heavily involved in the community serving as Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Guilford Institute for 37 years, representing Guilford in the General Assembly in 1923 and serving as Fire Marshall. Seward's home was located at 33 Church Street. Later owners of the property were Osbert D. Dudley, Katherine L.G. Dudley, and William C. White.
