SIGNIFICANCE

9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL
 This appears to be a Greek Revival house to which alot of things have happened: in recent times it has picked up a greenhouse and a glassed-in porch, earlier the ground may have been cut away in front to open up the basement and make another story. The result today is a far cry from the Greek Revival (hardly anything remains to remind us of it except the frieze under the cornice) but the narrow steep lines of the central block and the asymmetrical grouping of wings on different levels have produced a distinctive composition that has considerable character.
