HISTORIC RESOURCE INVENTORY – BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES

CONTINUATION SHEET

9 Boston Street

Other notable features of building or site

Fenestration includes large multi-paned windows on the first story and two-over-two double-hung windows on the second story.

Historical or Architectural importance

Page Hardware and Appliance Company purchased the building in 1984. Albert Wildman was born in 1810 to Agur Wildman (1779-1861) and Elizabeth Chalker (1777-1852). He married Abigail Graves (1813-1900) in 1838 and their children were James Graves Wildman (1839-1913), Joel Tuttle Wildman (1841-1903), and Burdett Magill Wildman (1845-1864). In the 1860 United States Federal Census of Guilford lists Wildman as a merchant living with his wife and children. Albert B. Wildman was a successful merchant in Guilford and operated a store at 11 Boston Street. Wildman died in 1878.

William E. Weld (1815-1902) was the town's foremost house carpenter, contractor, joiner, and self-taught architect. He constructed more than 35 houses between 1838 and 1875.
