Interrelationship of buildings and surroundings

Surrounding the property are nineteenth and twentieth century dwellings.

Other notable features of building or site

Fenestration consists of six-over-nine and four-over-six double-hung sash windows. A decorative arch is found above the windows on the second story. A brick chimney protrudes from the ridgeline of the roof. An addition is attached to the east elevation of the house.

Historical or Architectural importance

Erastus Dudley had this house built c. 1830 and relocated his family from the home he grew up in to the corner of Routes 77 and 80. He had this house built for him and his wife plus his son, Nathan and his new wife, Sophronia. Dudley had become a successful mill owner and started his own tannery. Because of his success and large family, this area became known as Dudleyville. It is now listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Later owner of the property was Ed Chapman who lived here from 1899-1922.
