Moulding under the eaves; plain door frame; stone chimney; stone foundation.

SIGNIFICANCE

9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL
Although it no longer retains its old window sash, the form of this Colonial house and placement of the windows are notable features. The stone chimney and molding under the eaves also contribute to its appearance. With its large lot it plays a supportive role in its neighborhood and is a reminder of the continuing rural nature of this district.
John Stone II, is believed to have been the first owner of this house. The property has been owned by the Hubbard family, at least, since 1852 (cf. Map) and is still held by a Hubbard.
