SIGNIFICANCE

8. NOTABLE FEATURES
    Overhanging eaves; decorative shingles in the gable; front rectangular bay window; side projection with beveled sides; high stone foundation.
9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL
    A variety of surface textures and architectural shapes are features that give this house its special interest. One two-story bay with beveled sides is topped by a cross gable and another bay hangs out from the second story on the front. Fancy shingle work and clapboarding make for interesting textures on the sides. Houses of this style usually had fancy porches, and this house seems to be missing its porches. Nonetheless, it is a highlight of its small neighborhood.
