SIGNIFICANCE

8. NOTABLE FEATURES The overhang along the front of the house is a distinguishing feature, it makes a brow to shelter the four evenly spaced windows and central door. The broad, steep wood-shingled roof, with its steep pitch and fine stone chimney, is particularly handsome, although it is not known if it is original or rebuilt. Modern additions at the rear do not detract from the integrity of this small house. (For details of the interior cf. p. 62, Milestones of Old Guilford, Guilford Keeping Society)
9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL Jonathan Bishop, Sr. the son of John Bishop, one of the Covenanters and first settlers of Guilford, built this house in 1787, it is believed, on the site of an earlier house. Bishop, a farmer, had large holdings of land in this area.
The tradition of farming this flat land continues in the wholesale rose growing business of William Pinchbeck Inc. William E. Pinchbeck, grandfather of the present owner, bought this property in 1928.
