SIGNIFICANCE

- ## 9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL

Some residents of Guilford's outlying districts who came to the village on Saturday to attend church on Sunday stayed in "sabbath day houses" like this one or its neighbor at 19 Union Street. A steeply pitched roof opens a large useable space in the attic. In addition to its importance as a surviving "sabbath day house," this is a good example of Guilford's smaller homes of the late 18th century.
