SIGNIFICANCE

8. NOTABLE FEATURES Central hall plan with twin chimney in brick; boxed cornice (pedimented); frieze; 6/6 sash; wide wooden lintels; rectangular gable windows; entry with an entablature roof (with a row of dentils); tapered fluted columns, pilasters with leaf like capitals and sidelights.

9. ARCHITECTURAL-HISTORICAL

A roof ridge parallel to the street and a central hall plan declare a taste for forms of an earlier age in this house built with Greek Revival details. An 1852 lithograph shows porch wings with scalloped trim on either end; one of them survives to the present. This house is an interesting example of owners and builders adapting features of different styles to fulfill the particular needs of the inhabitants.

The lithograph, which is on the 1852 map of Guilford, labels the house as the residence of William Faulkner.
